BaySide man arrested, charged with Lakeshore Road burglaries

BY DENA BISNETTE

A BaySide Park man has been arrested and jailed in connection with burglaries at four residences located on and immediately off Lakeshore Road.

According to Hancock County Sheriff's Investigator Glen Strong, 21-year-old Albert N. Mackbee of Rt. 7, Box 375, has been charged with four counts of burglary of a dwelling and jailed on $5,000 bond.

Strong said all four burglaries occurred Monday afternoon and all items taken have been recovered by the sheriff's department.

Mackbee was arrested at about 10:15 a.m. Tuesday.

Auxiliary Deputy Archie Courge assisted in the investigation.

Supervisors buy barn site, divide over purchase funding

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors has purchased a Highway 43 site for a central barn after settling a dispute about how to pay for the land.

The 10-acre site is located west of the Highway 43 Community Center and Ballpark in Beat Four and was purchased for $2,500 per acre.

The land had been part of the estate of the late W. Earl Stoddard of Picayune.

The purchase price was below the appraisals obtained, Chancery Clerk Michael Necaise said.

Beat Four Supervisor Sam Perniciaro did not vote because he was absent from the meeting, but the remaining four supervisors approved the purchase.

The arguments began when the board had to decide which funds to use to pay for the purchase.

Beat One Supervisor Bert Courge said he was not in favor of using a loan if the county already had funds available.

He said the money should come from road and bridge funds.

Board President and Beat Two Supervisor A.A. Kellar agreed with Courge, but Beat Three Supervisor Roger Dale Ladner and Beat Five Supervisor James Travirca said the funds should come from gas severance tax collections.

After a vote on the matter resulted in a tie, Courge pointed out that if the funds came from road and bridge and the county later needed to make up some of the funding, some funds could be taken out of severance tax.

He said most of the severance tax collections would probably be needed to pay for the county's share of the Waveland Regional Wastewater Management District's current sewerage project, which will eventually extend into some of the county's more populated areas.

In addition, Courge pointed out that money can be transferred out of the severance tax account but not back into it.

Money from other funds can be transferred into Road and Bridge, he said.

Travirca agreed to change his vote and seconded Courge's motion that the money for the land purchase be taken out of road and bridge. Kellar voted for the motion but Ladner voted against it.

The bids for the barn itself are scheduled to be opened at the Oct. 6 meeting.

The funding for the barn will probably be obtained through a loan, Ladner said.

Ladner asked that the board's attorneys, Gex, Gex and Phillips, look into the possibility of financing the barn over five years.

Ladner said the board may also be able to look into financing the site if a loan is needed to recover the funds taken from Road and Bridge.

The amount of the land purchase will be divided into five and one-fifth will be taken from each supervisor's road and bridge account.

The accounts consist of carryover money that the supervisors set aside at last week's meeting.

That carryover money will be pooled with the rest of the county's road and bridge funds until this year's tax collections become available but after that will be used in whichever beats for which it was already allocated.

In other business Monday, the supervisors:

—Approved a request from Civil Defense Director Robert Boudin, who asked that the supervisors approve putting a referendum for enhanced 911 emergency service on a countywide basis;

—Asked the Hancock County Fair Commission to obtain estimates on air conditioning the fairgrounds building;

—Approved hiring Jay Marsh as county fire marshal and agreed to pay 65 percent of his $1,000 per month salary with the City of Waveland paying the remaining 35 percent;

—Agreed to advertise for equipment for West Hancock Volunteer Fire Department;

—Approved hiring a substitute for Veterans' Service Officer Michael Ladner to serve during Ladner authorized absences;

—Proclaimed the week of Oct. 5 Fire Prevention Week;

—Approved Waveland's request for $15,000 in Beat One bridge construction funds;

—Purchased a pick-up truck for use by the Beat Five foreman; and —Denied a private company's request for permission to dump a non-hazardous sludge in the county landfill at Catahoula.

Friday is deadline to register, qualify for Waveland election

BY DENA BISNETTE

Non-registered voters and potential candidates have until Friday to qualify for participation in Waveland's city election on Nov. 4.

Voters who have not yet registered may participate in the election if they register prior to 4 p.m. Friday at city hall, City Clerk and Registrar Arcelyn Dastugue said.

Voters may also register at the circuit clerk's office in the Hancock County Courthouse until 5 p.m.

Voters who have moved from one ward into another should notify city hall in person, Dastugue said.

Candidates for mayor, alderman and city Democratic Executive Committee representative may also qualify until Friday.

Candidates can qualify only at city hall and may not do so at the courthouse, the clerk said.

Friday will also be the final day for registration for voters who want to participate in the Nov. 4 general election.

The same hours for city hall and the circuit clerk's office apply as for the Waveland election. Registration for the general election will also be taken at Bay St. Louis City Hall.

New owners to renovate MarkeTown Shopping Center

By ELLIS CUEVAS

MarkeTown Shopping Center, Bay St. Louis was recently purchased by Cal Equity Corporation of New Orleans, La. from Chase Federal Savings & Loan Association.

Robert C. Aertker, a spokesman for Cal Equity said on Friday, "Plans calls for an immediate renovation of MarkeTown, and full occupancy by Spring 1987."

Cal Equity's president is Michael J. Lipsey of New Orleans. Ray Stronky, vice-president, will oversee renovation of MarkeTown.

The corporation owns shopping centers in Louisiana, Mississippi, and is in the process of expanding into Alabama and Florida, Aertker stated.

"The reason for the purchase of MarkeTown is because Cal Equity's owners can see the potential for Bay-Waveland and Hancock County. Our goal is to provide the area's shoppers with the types of merchandisers not now available," Aertker added.

Two released on bond, two held

BY DENA BISNETTE

Two of the four Chalmette, La., residents arrested in connection with a Friday burglary at Wilcox Pharmacy have been released on bond.

Robert Bourgeois, 38, and Vida Lowrey, 34, were still in the Hancock County Jail Wednesday on burglary charges, according to Waveland Police Investigator Robert Tartavouille.

Bourgeois was being held for Louisiana authorities on a probation violation.

Lowrey was also being held for Louisiana, according to a Hancock County Sheriff's Department report.

Richard Seeber, 32; and Melanie Seeber, 28; have been released on $10,000 bond each.

Bourgeois and Richard Seeber were arrested Friday morning by Waveland and Bay St. Louis police personnel after a burglar alarm sounded at Wilcox Pharmacy, which is located on Waveland Avenue. They were charged with burglary.

Melanie Seeber and Lowrey were arrested later in Chalmette by officers of St. Bernard Parish Sheriff's Department, Tartavouille said. They were transferred to Waveland and turned over to the Hancock County Sheriff's Department.

Planning commission blasts council for non-support

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

Members of the Bay St. Louis Planning and Zoning Commission Tuesday night asked why the council ignored "a year's work" by the commission in a recent decision on zoning of property near the new hospital site.

"The commission spent a year coming up with a plan and the council's non-progressive attitude toward growth in the city is very negative for the county," Commissioner Bill Tate stated at commission special meeting at City Hall.

In the council's deliberation of the issue, the recommendation of the planning commission was never presented as a motion before the council.

Commissioner Gordon Beau said a 'lack of consideration for the commission's recommendation by the council makes the whole ideal of a volunteer planning board a farce."

Tate added that even though there had been joint meetings of the commission and the council, public meetings and public hearings, there was 'not one peep was heard from any member of the city council.'

Ladner was arrested Monday. Strong said Ladner was on probation stemming from a grand larceny charge at the time the alleged rape occurred.

Air Force general to address Salute to Military

Air Force General Richard L. Lawson, Deputy Commander-in-Chief of the U.S. European Command, will address the 8th Annual Salute to the Military dinner Tuesday at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum Convention Center.

Sponsored by the Gulfport Area Chamber of Commerce, the salute will, according to Salute Chairman George Schloegel, "recognize close ties that exist between the entire Gulf Coast and all the branches of the armed services and will salute military personnel and their families for frequent and numerous contributions to the Coast area."

"Gen. Lawson will bring first hand information on activities in North Africa, particularly Libya, and Western Europe.

The dinner begins with a social hour at 6:30 p.m. and dinner at 7:30 p.m.

Entertainment will be provided by the Voices of Keesler and the 502nd U.S. Air Force Band.

Tickets are $22.50 for civilian and military retired; $20.50 for officers; and $12.50 for enlisted personnel.

Deadline for reservations is Friday, Oct. 3 and tickets will not be available at the door.

Further information is available from the Gulfport Area Chamber of Commerce at 863-2933.

Lung Association relates car care and clean air

Auto and truck emissions account for approximately 70 percent of the carbon monoxide (CO), one third of the hydrocarbons (HC), and almost half of the nitrogen oxides (NO) in our nation's air, says the Mississippi Lung Association.

"Information on car care and clean air is available as part of our observance of National Car Care Month in October," said Mrs. Johnnie Tolleson, of Kosciusko, president of the Mississippi Lung Association. "We're also making available a car sticker with the motto 'Tuned Engine Mean Cleaner Air,'" she added.

"Automobile usage in the United States has increased three-fold and the use of commercial vehicles four-fold in the last three decades and this increase has resulted in increased levels of motor vehicle-related air pollutants in many parts of the country," said Mrs. Tolleson.

The brochures, offered free of charge by M.L.A., describe the public health effects of auto and truck emissions and make recommendations to car owners on how to maintain their cars and keep air pollution to a minimum.

Information is also given to warn motorists against tampering with their emission control equipment and against fuel switching (using leaded gas when their cars call for unleaded). "All of which makes economic as well as environmental sense," Mrs. Tolleson pointed out.

For car care brochures and sticker, or information on air pollution, contact the Mississippi Lung Association, P.O. Box 9865, Jackson, MS 39206 or phone 362-5453.

'Cooking up a Storm'

By KATY MCGUIRE CAIRE

Sausage has been a favorite food ever since the days of the ancient Greeks and Romans - as a matter of fact, in the days of Julius Caesar, sausages had become so much a part and so well associated with riotous festivals that they were banned in the Christian era - and so, inevitably, were "bootlegged" - can you imagine that?

When the ban was finally lifted, and diners could once more partake of the tasty and varied sausages of those so-long-ago days without running afoul of the laws, you may be sure that there was feasting and more feasting!

For such is human nature, that, when we can't have something or other, that's when we want it most! More and more varieties of sausages came into popular use throughout the Middle Ages of history, smoked, cooked or dried, according to the area and its climate and the taste of its people.

Here in America, the Indians introduced the early settlers to their sausage, a primitive sort of cake made from dried beef and berries, so we are told - and, of course, with the later wave of European immigrants to this land, all sorts of sausages became part of our country's cuisine.

Sausages are the hurried cook's friend, as many varieties are pre-cooked or quickly cooked; others take awhile; all are good!

Especially tasty is the famed dish of France's countryside, "choucroute garni" - relax, that just means "sausage garnished with sauerkraut" - or the sausage and kraut dishes so popular in German cookery. Here's:

CHOUCRROUTE GARNI

1 to 1½ lbs. sausage links of your preference

1 lb. frankfurters
4 medium onions, chopped
2 cups carrots, diced
1 large apple, diced
1 bay leaf

1 beef bouillon cube or 1 cup water, or cup of beef stock
2 cans (8 cups) sauerkraut, well drained

½ cup white wine

1 Tbsp. brown sugar

Generous dashes of black pepper, minced garlic and salt (optional)

Prick the sausage links lightly with the tines of a fork, then brown well in a heavy skillet over moderate heat. Remove and drain, and pour off all but two or a bit more tablespoons of the drippings.

To this, add the onions, carrots and bay leaf, apple, pepper, salt, stock (or bouillon cube and water). Simmer for 20 to 30 minutes, covered, then stir in the drained sauerkraut, along with the wine and brown sugar.

Layer the sauerkraut and sausages, along with the frankfurters, in a baking dish, ending with the sausages and franks as topping.

Bake, covered, for 45 minutes or so at 350 degrees. (Six servings).

River to honor 1947 graduate

POPLARVILLE—Prentiss native Joseph Howard Terrell, who presently resides in Roswell, Ga., will be featured as Pearl River College's 1986 Alumnus of the Year Saturday during the school's day-long celebration.

The 1947 Pearl River graduate is president of Homeway Inc., a 30-store chain of retail outlets serving rent-to-own customers.

The firm is based in Doraville, Ga. While at PRC, Terrell worked various campus jobs to pay his tuition. He played football and was a member of the boxing team and started for the Wildcats' 1947 state championship basketball team.

Terrell transferred to the University of Southern Mississippi where he played football and obtained a marketing and merchandising degree in 1949.

Since leaving the River Terrell has climbed the business ladder.

Following his graduation from USM he began a career with Sears, Roebuck and Company which began in Mobile and ended in Chicago in 1979 as the company's national operating manager.

"While climbing the business ladder I never forgot the lessons I learned at PRC," Terrell said.

"Academic lessons, hard work and lessons of discipline at Pearl River played an important part in my success."

During this 30-year period he served as personnel manager of a large retail store from '53-'56, assistant store manager '56-'58, assistant territorial merchandise controller '58-'60 and became a store manager in 1961.

From 1963 to '76 Terrell served as territorial operating manager. From mid '76 to 1977 he was national service manager and from '77 to '79 the PRC graduate was Sears' national operating manager.

Following Terrell's career with Sears, he became vice president of distribution for Eckerd Drug Company. By 1983 he was vice president and a member of the company's Board of Management.

Terrell also served as president of the American Cable Connection, a developing consumer electronics retail chain with emphasis on computers and telecommunications. His affiliation with Homeway Inc. began in 1985.

He is a member of the Roswell United Methodist Church, chamber of commerce and has worked with the Atlanta United Way for 15 years with special emphasis on a child care center through the United Way.

Terrell is married to the former Catherine Taylor and they have one son, Joe Jr., and a daughter, Deborah, and two grandchildren.

He will serve as grand marshal on the 3 p.m. PRC parade through the streets of Poplarville and will be featured during the annual homecoming banquet at 5:30 in the PRC Cafeteria.

One injured in accident

Caroline E. Barns of Hancock County was treated for minor injuries and released from Hancock General Hospital Wednesday morning following an automobile accident on Dogpatch Road.

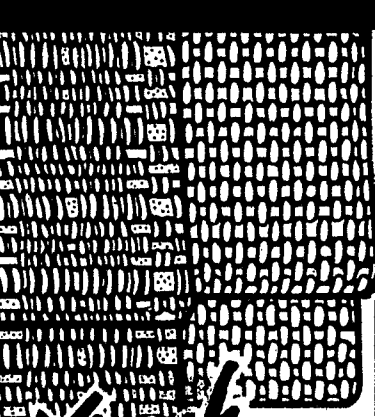

Barns was traveling south when her automobile was struck by a vehicle driven by Patricia Tarver, Rt. 6, Box 734-b, Bay St. Louis.

Hancock County Deputy Nathan E. Hoda said Tarver's vehicle apparently had edged into Barns' lane when the accident occurred.

Hancock North Central's Hawks will travel to Bay St. Louis to take on the Rock-A-Chaws of St. Stanislaus on Friday night.

Coach Irvin Favre's Hawks exploded last Friday night scoring 53 points against the Pirates of Pass Christian for their fourth victory of the season.

Vernon Powell's Rock-A-Chaws are looking for victory number one of the season.

The young Rocks will have to pull many rabbits out of the bag, in order to pluck the Hawks, or they could possibly catch Hancock thinking about Bay High and d'Iberville later in the season.

It should be a good game and Stanislaus stadium we hope will be filled with both Rock and Hawk fans.

Cleveland Williams' Tigers will take the long journey to East Central Friday night.

Bay High has a streak of three wins in a row after dropping a two-point season opener to a strong Stone County team.

It is hoped there will be many Tiger fans in the stands for the kick-off against East Central, this will give Bay High's players a little extra boost in keeping their victory string in tact.

The Pirates of Pass Christian will face a tough task in playing host to the Tomcats of Stone County Friday night.

Head Coach Alton Wright's Pirates will have to have every break going their way in order to tame the Tomcats.

Remember, kickoffs are at 7:30 p.m.

It was good to see the interest expressed on Tuesday for the opening of the National Space Technology Laboratories Combined Agencies Campaign (CAC).

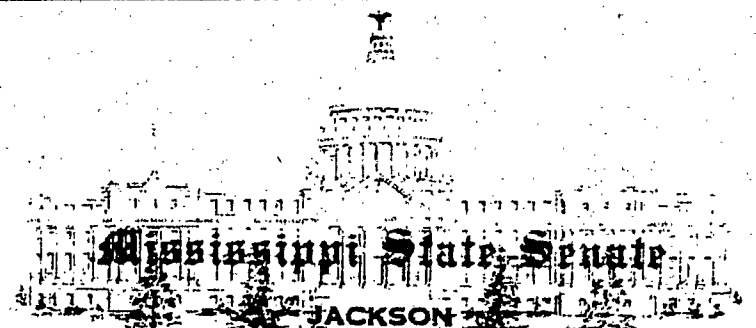

As many of you know, United Way Agencies in the immediate area all benefit from the CAC campaign.

The contributions coming to the United Way of Hancock County are sizeable, and without them, we probably would never reach our goal.

Many Hancock Countians are employed at NSTL and they designate their contributions go to the local United Way.

No. 701 is the designated number for Hancock County's United Way.

The only way United Way can reach its goals and serve the many agencies receiving funds is through the giving of everyone.

Senator F. M. Smith of Laurel will introduce legislation in the 1987 Session to change the method of election of county board of education members to hopefully spur more interest in their election and make the board members more responsive to the taxpayers.

Currently, there are five county board of education members, one from each supervisor's district, who serve six-year terms on a staggered basis.

Smith's bill would elect all members every four years in the same manner as other county and state officials are chosen, including going through primary elections. "When there are off-year elections, such as this year, in many counties there are one or two county school board members up for election. Voter turnout is at best poor," Smith noted.

"To compound the problem, regardless of the number of candidates on the ballot in the general election, there are no primaries and the candidate with the most votes wins with a majority not required."

"By causing these school board members to be elected in the same manner and at the same time as all other county and state officials such as supervisors, clerks, sheriffs, legislators and such, it gives the voters a chance to be more involved and makes the candidate more responsive," Smith said.

If the bill passes, it would become effective with the 1987 general election provided it receives clearance from the U.S. Justice Department in accordance with the Voting Rights Act.

"I am particularly interested in this bill because of the new fiscal independence we have given county boards of education through the Uniform School Law Act of 1986.

These boards can now raise your taxes by up to 7 percent and have to answer to no one but the voters and the taxpayers," Smith said.

Is your child safe riding a school bus?

A letter from a concerned mother: On Tuesday the 23rd, a child was attempted to be pulled off a school bus because a man had asked for a certain child.

The bus driver knows before any child can get off the bus with a note it has to be approved and verified first in the office.

A child was let off at an unscheduled stop with a note that hadn't gone through proper channels.

The driver said no one was let off on an unscheduled stop.

Then it was said the child got off without permission.

If the bus driver does not know the rules, why is that person still driving the bus?

And will our children be let off for anyone who asks?

GLAUCOMA

Q: I know glaucoma has something to do with pressure in the eye, but what kind of pressure is it and what causes it? How common is glaucoma, and is it curable?

A: Glaucoma is an elevation of the pressure of fluids within the eye. No one knows what causes the increased pressure, however; there is a normal circulation of fluid in the eye.

The eye makes fluid and a certain amount of the fluid leaves the eye. Those two phenomena balance each other in the healthy eye to maintain a stable pressure. This stability is essential in order to maintain a constant shape—otherwise vision would slip in and out of focus.

Abnormal fluid drainage, or aqueous humor, causes pressure within the eye to increase, a result of resistance to the outflow of fluid from one part of the eye to another. Generally, no symptoms that suggest a problem occur until substantial amounts of one's vision have been irreversibly lost.

The interruption of fluid circulation can be sudden and dangerous, however, in possibly one of a hundred cases. An irreversible loss of vision can result in these emergency situations in a matter of hours with a total loss within 24 hours.

Pressure builds behind the cornea where the fluid is produced when fluid is trapped from circulating through tiny openings between the cornea and lens of the eye. "Chronic" or open-angle glaucoma—the most common type—results from this occurrence. Loss of vision, as mentioned earlier, goes unnoticed because damage to the optic nerve from the building pressure is very slow and begins from the periphery of the eye.

Some two percent of the population who are more than 40 years old are affected by glaucoma; however the condition is rare in younger people. Those more than 40 should have eye exams performed by an ophthalmologist every one or two years. The ophthalmologist can perform sensitive tests which detect abnormal pressure increases within the eye.

Open-angle glaucoma can be treated successfully in nearly all cases. Most people diagnosed with this type of glaucoma require only eyedrops to control the disease and prevent visual loss.

Ophthalmologists are now using a quick surgical procedure employing a laser to immediately relieve the problem for people for whom other medical therapy is not entirely successful.

Early detection, however is the best therapy. Visits to an ophthalmologist for proper eye care that includes a test for glaucoma should be regularly scheduled. Even the most subtle changes in ocular pressure, undetected by the patient who suffers the early signs of glaucoma, can be monitored and treated by the eye specialist.

This "Matter of Health" was prepared in cooperation with the ophthalmologists on staff at The University Hospital—the teaching hospital for the University of Mississippi Medical Center. ## Eyes on Mississippi

By Bill Minor

JACKSON—Hopefully, if the U.S. Justice Department concurs, Mississippi next year will have one set of election laws that everybody can understand, and better access to the political process.

The Election Reform Act passed by the Legislature at the 1986 session is the first comprehensive modernization of state election laws since 1935. It consolidates into one code a hodge-podge of conflicting election statutes going back to 1915.

For several weeks the new election measure has been before the Justice Department for pre-clearance under the 1965 federal Voting Rights Act.

Two state legislators, along with representatives of Mississippi's attorney general and secretary of state, were in Washington a week or so ago to outline the genesis of the voluminous measure to the Justice Department voting rights attorneys. "They kept looking for snakes and didn't find them," said State Rep. Tim Ford of Tupelo, chairman of the House Elections Committee.

Ford said the Justice people were "impressed with the package and felt it was very admirable what Mississippi is doing, since no other state in the South has apparently consolidated its election laws to determine that they are in conformity with the Voting Rights Act."

Actually, the new election law has been submitted in four parts: 1) General Recodification of election laws in conformity with the Voting Rights Act; 2) Regulation of Political Action Committees and campaign financing; 3) Installing a presidential preferential primary in conjunction with other southern states; 4) Establishing the long-sought common qualifying deadline for both party and independent candidates.

Only the common qualifying date is expected to encounter any problems since it has been turned down before by the Justice Department as having a possible negative effect on black independent candidates.

But this time, Mississippi may have a bargaining chip. Ironically, Justice attorneys had approved Jackson's municipal elections two years ago with provision that independent candidates must qualify earlier than party candidates. The new law would cure that glitch and make uniform all qualifying deadlines for local or state elections.

Many believe that the much later qualifying deadline for independent candidates has secretly been used by Republicans as a device to put a third candidate in general elections in order to split the Democratic vote and help the Republican candidate. Republicans have always denied the allegation.

A determination on the comprehensive election reform should be made by the Justice Department by mid-October, said Rep. Ford. He added that the state needs enough time to begin the mandatory training of election commissioners and poll workers as required by the bill in time for 1987 elections.

Credit for launching the movement to provide a uniform state election code must be given to Secretary of State Dick Molpus who created a bi-racial task force two years ago to study and modernize the state's election process.

Legislative interim committees later used the task force study recommendations as the basis for the comprehensive law reform that became a major accomplishment of the 1986 session.

Hearings and studies of election practices followed in local elections across the state revealed amazing facts that some counties and cities were holding elections differently because of conflicting laws. Often, election officials admitted, they didn't know what election procedures were applicable because of confusing statutes.

One significant change in voting under the new law would extend voting hours statewide one hour to 7 p.m. Historically, Mississippi has closed the polls at 6 p.m., a practice that was established long before daylight savings time.

The Mississippi 6 p.m. poll closing for years has drawn complaints from working people and business people, particularly in urban areas, as a handicap to casting their votes.

Simplified in the new law is the absentee ballot procedure. Whereas two signatures are now required on the back of the envelope sealing an absentee ballot, only one witness' signature would be required.

Also, elderly and handicapped voters would be given improved access to both registration and polling places, and in securing absentee ballots.

Political Action Committees (PACs) organized within the state will be required to register with the Secretary of State 10 days after organizing and contributions as well as expenditures in excess of $200 will have to be reported.

Every county will have to have some form of automated voting device to count votes by January 1, 1988. It has been a long-sought goal to do away with the agonizingly slow counts of paper ballots in many Mississippi counties.

Sadly, the requirements for voting machines in every county won't be in effect in next year's elections for statewide office.

M E C

Mississippi Economic Council

THE IMPORTANCE OF GOVERNOR SUCCESSION

One of Mississippi's competitors in the economic development field made a comment recently which should be of interest to citizens of this state. The comment came from an executive with the Economic Development Department of the State of Tennessee.

Tennessee has become a model for the rest of the country with its highly successful development efforts. Significant results began to come to that state, said the executive, as Governor Lamar Alexander began his second term in office.

The effort, in case you are not aware includes the location of General Motors' new Saturn automobile manufacturing plant, a Nissan truck manufacturing plant, and some thirty Japanese manufacturing investments.

The Tennessee developer explained: Governor Alexander used his first four-year term preparing the state for economic advancement, including improvements in education and marketing of the state. Now in his second successive term, the Governor is using this time in office to close the sale on contacts made in his first term.

Governor succession, the record shows, is important to the development of a state. At this point, 46 of the 50 states permit immediate succession in the governor's office.

Mississippi, unfortunately, is not one of those. Mississippi and three other states—Kentucky, New Mexico, and Virginia—limit their governors to one four-year term. In Mississippi, the governor may offer for another term after sitting out for four years, but he cannot immediately succeed himself.

This gives our neighboring states a competitive edge in the economic development race.

But we can do something about that.

Mississippi voters will have the opportunity in the Nov. 4 General Election to amend the state's constitution to permit the governor to immediately succeed himself. The governor will be eligible to serve for two terms, consecutive or otherwise.

It is important that voters approve the constitutional amendment if we are serious about economic development.

You will want to vote "yes" for governor succession on Nov. 4.

Registration deadline nears for Nov. Election

Secretary of State Dick Molpus reports Friday, Oct. 3 is the final day for registering to vote in the Nov. 4 General Election.

Registration to vote by qualified citizens should be completed by 5 p.m., Oct. 3 at the office of the county circuit clerk or at the office of a municipal clerk commissioned as a deputy registrar.

Molpus said that the deadline for registration is 30 days before an election; however, the 30th day, Oct. 5, falls on Sunday.

Because circuit clerks on an individual basis may choose to be closed on Saturday, Molpus recommended that individuals check with their local circuit clerk's office.

Molpus stressed the importance of every vote. "According to the census there are approximately 45,000 people in Mississippi who became 18 years old this year."

"By registering, a citizen is taking

Bank charges reimbursed on erroneous levies

Taxpayers who have had erroneous levies placed on their bank accounts can receive reimbursement for all resulting bank charges, such as customary fees and overdraft charges, the Internal Revenue Service says.

"Erroneous levies might be caused by the fact that a taxpayer's payment was received but not credited to his or her account, or the taxpayer had an approved agreement to delay full payment of the tax liability and met all of the conditions of that agreement, or the taxpayer did not have any outstanding tax liability," said Tully Miller, Jackson District Director, Internal Revenue Service. Charges incurred (up to $1,000) as a result of an erroneously placed levy will be reimbursed if the charges are paid by the taxpayer and not waived by the bank.

The taxpayer should complete Form 8546, "Claim for Reimbursement of Bank Charges Incurred Due to Erroneous Service Levy" and submit it to the Director of the IRS Office whose address appears on the levy within one year after the expense was incurred.

If the one-year time limit is about to expire, and Form 8546 has not been obtained, taxpayers may send a letter of intent to file a claim. "The letter should include as much information as possible, including name, address, phone number, Taxpayer Identification Number, and the amount of the claim," Miller explained.

In order for the claim to be approved, certain criteria apply. The IRS must have been responsible for the error; the taxpayer must not have contributed to the continuation or compounding of the error; and before the levy was issued, the taxpayer must have responded in a timely manner to any contact from IRS.

In addition, the taxpayer must have provided any requested documentation or information sufficient to establish his or her position.

More information on requesting a reimbursement of bank charges can be obtained by writing the Internal Revenue Service at 100 West Capitol Street, Suite 504; Stop 30; Jackson, Ms. 39269 or calling the Internal Revenue Service at 1-800-424-1040.

ETV to launch fund-raising

This fall, for the first time in its history, because of increasingly severe financial difficulties, Mississippi ETV will initiate a fund-raising campaign to compensate for budget cuts and to maintain its current level of operation.

ETV Executive Director Lee Morris says that the three-component fund-raising effort targeted at both individuals and corporations is essential if ETV is to cope with mounting bills and personnel layoffs.

Along with a state appropriation shortfall of $1 million, Mississippi ETV has experienced rising costs in a number of areas: for example, programming costs have increased tremendously over the past two years, and the cost of electricity to power the eight radio and TV statewide transmitters has risen sharply in the same period.

In addition, 20 staff positions have been permanently lost, and currently seven positions have been "frozen" by ETV because no funds are available to pay the salaries. Further reduction in force will be required to bridge the salary shortfall gap. The staff losses are causing decreases in service to schools and other vital areas.

ETV has had two studio production crews, which have now been reduced to one. Production of instructional and public affairs programming will continue to be cut. "Mississippi Week," a weekly public affairs program featuring Mississippi journalists, was the first casualty.

The budget for phase one of ETV's kindergarten project has been reduced by 50 percent, and phase two is in jeopardy.

ETV's supplementary fund-raising effort is scheduled to officially begin Oct. 5.

The Public Broadcasting Campaign is designed to reach out into the community to individual viewers, who will be asked for their financial support for programming.

The Fund for Excellence is designed to appeal to the corporate community in Mississippi for its support of ETV production and promotional activities.

And, emphasis will be placed on attaining additional underwriters to help defray some of the costs of program transmission and purchase.

New Stage Theatre opens 22nd season with the The Foreigner

The Foreigner, an award-winning comedy by Larry Shue opened New Stage Theatre's 22nd season Oct. 1. Sponsored by Jackson-based Dunn Construction Company, Inc.

The Foreigner is scheduled to run through Oct. 18 and is the first in a series of five shows making up the theatre's season which closes with the longest running play of all time. The Fantasticks, in May.

Each regular season show is scheduled to run for three weeks. Some evening performances are sold out. Contact the Box Office, 1100 Carlisle, 948-3531, for season subscriptions and additional information.

The Foreigner, winner of two Obie Awards and two Outer Critics Circle Awards for Best New American Production, is a recent comedy about a shy Englishman vacationing at a fishing lodge in rural Georgia.

In order to avoid talking to other vacationers, he is passed off as a foreigner who speaks no English.

The results are hilarious when other guests alternately ignore and confide in him.

"It is one of the funniest pieces of material I've ever worked with," said New Stage Guest Director Ivan Rider.

A second play, the title of which is yet to be announced, will be presented as part of the regular season Nov. 12-23. It will also be directed by Rider.

Also included in New Stage's 1986-87 season is Lydie Breeze by John Guare, scheduled to run Jan. 21-Feb. 7. This recent play is set in Nantucket in 1895 and is the story of a family's attempt to come to terms with the past and present, life and death and the way their lives are intermingled. It is considered powerfully dramatic and gripping.

Mass Appeal by Bill C. Davis is a two-character play scheduled to open Feb. 18 and run through March 7. The play begins as a debate between two men on opposite sides of the generational and theological gap. It is a comedy about friendship, courage and love.

Closing the season is The Fantasticks, a musical by Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt, running April 22-May 9. A boy, a girl, love and life are at the center of this internationally-acclaimed musical. It is considered entertainment for the entire family with such memorable songs as "Try to Remember" and "Soon It's Gonna Rain".

Presented apart from the regular season shows but at a special discount to seasonal subscribers will be O'Henry's heartwarming Christmas story. The Gift of the Magi. The musical by Peter Ekstrom will run Dec. 8-20 in New Stage's intimate Howes Room Theatre.

The programs of New Stage are made possible, in part, by a grant from the Mississippi Arts Commission, a state agency, and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

Ocean Springs arts festival scheduled

The eighth annual Peter Anderson Arts and Crafts Festival and Food Fair is slated Nov. 1 and 2, according to Jack Gottsche, Tourism Committee chairman for the Ocean Springs Chamber of Commerce.

"Several new crafts and entertainment acts are being introduced as well as many fine arts and craft returning from last year. Since it is a juried show the public is assured that only vendors with first class wares will be present," Gottsche said. "The Fair is named for the late Peter Anderson, founder of Shearwater Pottery."

Some 100 booths will be located in the area around the old railroad depot on Washington Avenue. Art items available will include fine art paintings and metal sculptured flowers and waterfalls.

Crafts available will include hand-made jewelry, furniture, clocks, toys, dolls and many gift items.

A showing of Peter Anderson's pottery will be exhibited by the Anderson family in the chamber office.

In addition, merchants along Washington Avenue will be open for business.

Local restaurants, churches and clubs will serve traditional and ethnic food in booths situated in the fair area. Entertainment will include musicians, dancers and singers.

The annual event is sponsored by the Ocean Springs Chamber of Commerce, and is held in conjunction with the local Art Association's annual art exhibit which opens Sunday, Nov. 2. This will be an exhibition of selected fine art works by the artists of the three coastal counties in Mississippi.

For additional information on the Arts Festival, visit the Ocean Springs Chamber of Commerce in the depot on Washington Avenue, or telephone 875-4424.

'A Prairie Home Companion' schedules rebroadcast time

It may be the little town that time forgot and the decades cannot improve, but Public Radio in Mississippi thinks it's pretty special.

For those persons across the state who happen to miss the new from Lake Wobegon on Saturday afternoons, they'll have a second chance.

"A Prairie Home Companion" will have a rebroadcast time on PRM beginning the first weekend of October. Regularly broadcast at 5 p.m., Saturdays, on PRM, "A Prairie Home Companion" with Garrison Keillor also will be broadcast at 2 p.m., Sundays, beginning Oct. 5.

Bay school board to select finalists from 14 architects

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Bay-Waveland School District board will meet again at 7 p.m. Oct. 3 to select three architectural firms from the 14 who met with the board this week.

The 14 architectural firms are competing for a contract for a long-range building program for the school district.

The needs to be met by that program are still being assessed by school officials.

The selection of three finalists was recommended by Superintendent of Education Roger Oge and was unanimously approved by the four board members who attended a special meeting Monday.

Board Member Cyril Glover was absent due to illness of a family member.

The entire board meeting Monday was used for architects' presentations and no other business was handled.

Architects addressing the board Monday represented firms including: Robert D. Ladner, Long Beach; Eskew, Vogt, Salvato and Filson, Biloxi; Shaw and Walker, Gulfport; and Leonard A. Collins, Biloxi.

Also included were Dunn and Randall, Gulfport; Fountain and Lamas, Biloxi; Thomas A. Habbeeb, Pascagoula; Don D. Leopard, Gulfport; Maginnis-Gallagher, New Orleans, La.; and Michael Reeves, Bay St. Louis.

Also addressing the board were representatives of J. Mykolyk and Associates, Pass Christian; Virden-Alexander-Lacoste, Jackson; Fred Wagner, Bay St. Louis and Compton-Bolton, Biloxi.

In addition, the board was briefly addressed by representatives of two consulting firms named by several of the Gulf Coast architects. They included Simpkins and Costelli and Canon Engineering.

Trial and appellate judges slate fall seminar

The dean of the National Judicial College will be the keynote speaker at the annual fall seminar for the state's trial and appellate judges scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday at Jackson's Ramada Inn Renaissance.

Dr. John W. Kern III will address the group during Thursday's opening session, which begins at 8:45 a.m.

The program, conducted by the Mississippi Judicial College of the University of Mississippi School of Law, will also include a discussion of Rule 11 of the Mississippi Rules of Civil Procedure; a legislative preview by Sen. Martin Smith and Rep. Terrell Stubbs; and presentations on the Mississippi Rules of Evidence, judicial conduct, insurance coverage for judges and a systems approach to counseling.

Chief Justice Harry G. Walker of the Mississippi Supreme Court has called Conference of Judges' meetings to be held during the seminar.

Circuit Judge and Mrs. Al Nicols will entertain judges, spouses and guests at a reception on Thursday evening at their home in Brandon.

A special program has been arranged for spouses while the judges attend the seminar classes during the three-day meeting.

Registration for the seminar will be 3-6 p.m. on Wednesday with late registration 8-8:15 a.m. on Thursday. The program will conclude on Friday afternoon.

For additional information contact the Mississippi Judicial College at 3825 Ridgewood Rd., Jackson, MS 39211 (601) 367-6300.

No changes in school bus policies expected

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

No change in school district policies on students embarking from school buses is currently being considered despite claims last week of an attempted kidnapping.

"We have always required students to have a letter signed by parents or guardians to allow a student to disembark at a different stop than usual," according to Billy Rhodes, Bay St. Louis-Waveland School District Transportation supervisor.

Rhodes also said if there is any doubt about the validity of the note, the signature is checked against the signature of the parent who registered the student in school or verified by a telephone call.

Rhodes said Bay-Waveland District requests families with custody problems to notify school authorities so that special care may be taken with those children.

Larry Matulich, transportation supervisor for the Hancock County School District, said requirements for district students are approximately the same as those in the city.

Both Rhodes and Superintendent Roger Oge said they believe there was not an attempted kidnapping last week.

"There is no evidence to support the claim an attempted kidnapping occurred," Rhodes said.

Investigator Alvin Ladner of the Hancock County Sheriff's Department said the alleged incident is still under investigation.

Officers complete training

Bay St. Louis Police Officers Don Osco, Wilbert Dorsey and Don Watson recently completed law enforcement in-service training at the Mississippi Law Enforcement Academy in Jackson.

Bay Detective Chuck James also completed the three-day refresher course for police officers.

Waveland Players list cast assignments

Director Dottie Overall has announced the cast for "Bus Stop," the Waveland Players' production scheduled for Nov. 15, 16, 21 and 22 at the Waveland Civic Center on Coleman Avenue.

Susan Stevens will play the female leading role of Cherie, originated on Broadway by Kim Stanley, then made famous by Marilyn Monroe in the movie version of William Inge's play about a group of people stranded by a blizzard at a bus-stop cafe in Kansas.

Perry Berens will play Bo Decker, Cherie's would-be husband, a naive cowboy from Montana.

Bobby Cotte will play Virgil Blessing, Bo's long-time sidekick, and Cotte's daughter, Jennifer, will play Elma Duckworth, a waitress at Grace's Diner.

Nan Ehrbright will play Grace Hoyland, the cafe's owner, and Dick Ehrbright will play Carl, the bus driver.

The role of Sheriff Will Masters will be played by Tommy Worrell and Ed Craig will play Dr. Gerald Lyman, a former college professor from the East.

Overall, who has been actively involved with Waveland Players both onstage and backstage for some years, has directed children's theatre before, but this is her first directorship for an adult play.

"I wanted to do something that was dramatic, and more sophisticated comedy," she said.

She selected "Bus Stop" because she liked the intensity of the characters, she said.

Overall's acting experience includes roles in "Deadwood Dick,"

"Murder Under the Magnolias," "UTBU," "Of Thee I sing," "Guys and Dolls" and "The Butler Did It."

The most difficult task of a director, Overall said, is choosing a cast. "When you have a lot of people, and only eight parts, it's hard."

About 20 people auditioned for roles in "Bus Stop," Overall said.

Special evening program offered at Gulf Islands National Seashore

The Mississippi District of Gulf Islands National Seashore, in coordination with the Stars Planetarium, Friday will be hosting the evening program, "Stars to Navigate By."

Superintendent Jerry A. Eubanks invites the public to join in an evening of viewing the stars that have guided mariners over the centuries.

The 7:30 p.m. program will be located at the public boat ramp area of Davis Bayou of Gulf Islands National Seashore in Ocean Springs. Telescopes or binoculars and something to sit on are necessary.

Ms. Regina Kates, director of the Stars Planetarium since 1982, will lead participants in this survey of the fall constellations and demonstrate the use of an 8-inch telescope.

told the commission she could not answer for how other councilmen had voted but personally she believed there was enough commercial property available in the area without "messing up a residential neighborhood."

The hospital site is large enough to include several doctors offices and will probably not be needed for hospital expansion, she added.

"I do not have a negative attitude and want the county to grow because I want my children be able to raise their families here," she added.

Also at the meeting, the commission approved additional text to the city's zoning ordinance for central business district commercial zones as recommended by Mayor Victor Frankiewicz.

His recommendation adds computer and other electronics hardware/software establishments, research and development establishments to the list of those currently allowed in commercial zones.

Frankiewicz told the commission these changes are necessary to accommodate several "high tech" firms interested in moving to Bay St. Louis.

Marochino listed other uses currently permitted including, hotels, motels, financial institutions, transportation passenger stations, terminals and depots, theaters, restaurants, furniture stores, barber shops, beauty salons, office buildings, public parks, public parking garages, newspaper offices and parking lots.

Federal, state, county and local government offices as well as retail dry goods, grocery, variety, appliance, hardware and tobacco stores are also allowed, he said.

Frankiewicz's recommendation also included the provision requiring no operations at these establishments be "obnoxious, offensive or detrimental to neighboring property by reason of dust, smoke, vibrations, noise, odor or effluents."

In other business, the commission approved a request by Gerald Charles to divide a lot which has two houses and a petition by John D. Mineo to rezone a section of property on Dunbar Avenue near Boardman Street from R-1 (residential 12,000 square feet lot size) to R-1A (residential 10,500 square feet lot size).

Bay High to battle East Central in final conference contest

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Bay Senior High School Tigers will travel to East Central High School in Hurley Friday for their last conference and district game this season.

The Tigers have a 3-1 record for both season and district and conference play and will try to increase that to 4-1 when they face the East Central Hornets, Tiger Head Coach Cleveland Williams said.

The Hornets are presently 1-3, but may still be a tough opponent, the coach said.

Williams said the Hornets run from a split backfield and also use a trip formation for their passing attack.

"There is also a lot of quickness in their backfield, which we will have to watch for when they run the option," he added.

"The Bay High Tigers have been working hard on the few plays we do run. I don't feel as if we should put in any new plays for this contest," Williams said.

"We are getting our timing down and making other adjustments for the betterment of the team. We have changed some assignments on our blocking scheme, which should make our offensive linemen's jobs easier."

The Tigers are going in the East Central game from a 54-16 win against Vancleave last week.

"I hope we can carry the momentum we had last week into this contest," the coach said. "We played a lot of young athletes in that game, which should help us in the long run."

"We have been able to give our linemen a lot of praise this week for a job well done. We had a good total team effort this past week, but we will need an even better effort this week in Jackson County."

If the score gets close, the Tigers may have problems, Williams added.

"At this time, we are still having too many mental breakdowns and that could cost us in a close game," he said.

Early season injuries were also a problem for the Tigers, but Bay High will go into this week's game with only one athlete on the injured list. Junior fullback Martin Perniciaro was injured on the last play of the Vancleave game and is expected to sit out the East Central game.

"Perniciaro has given our ballclub a big lift on offense as well as defense," the coach said. "He scored on a screen pass for 33 yards last week."

Prospective offensive starters this week include Aaron Whavers, a running back who had five carries for 141 yards in the game against Vancleave. He was also selected as the Tigers' outstanding offensive player for last week.

Other players expected to start on offense Friday include Dwayne Robertson, quarterback; Mark Haverty, fullback; Brian Laneaux or Whavers, running back; Andrew Collins, wingback; Dante Curry, split end; Billy Ross, center; Greg Necaise and Geja Carter, guards; Doral Nichols and Jerry Island, tackles; and Robert Hargett, tight end.

On defense, those expected to start include Wayne Karl and Britt Woods. Karl, last week's outstanding defensive player, contributed 11 assisted tackles and five solo tackles to last week's victory. Woods was credited with two interceptions.

Karl will probably start Friday at strong safety while Woods is expected to start at free safety, Williams said.

Other probable starters on defense include Amadee Collins and Laneaux, tackles; Carter and Hargett, ends; Necaise, middle linebacker; Whavers or Ross, strong-side linebacker; Haverty, weak-side linebacker; and Curry and Collins, cornerbacks.

The game begins at 7:30 p.m.

Hancock. Rocks to clash

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

The St. Stanislaus Rock-a-chaws will host the undefeated Hancock North Central Hawks Friday.

Stanislaus, with an 0-4 season record will have their hands full with the Hawks who are ranked 11th in the state.

Hawk Coach Irvin Favre said he is expecting the Hawks to begin the week with the proper attitude to win.

He said last week the Hawks started their game a "little flat" and they can not afford to do that again. "We were able to regroup at halftime but I don't want to start another game that way," he added.

Favre said the Hawks are not going to take their Stanislaus opponents lightly and have worked very hard this week.

"I believe it will be a tough game and anything is possible," he said.

"We are going to go and hopefully do the job that has got us where we are so far," Favre said.

Stanislaus Coach Vernon Powell said the Rock-a-chaws game plan is to play good sound football.

"We need to be mentally ready and play sound," he said.

Powell also said the Rocks can not afford to make mistakes in this week's game against the Hawks.

"During this season when a team playing Hancock has made a mistake, the Hawks have taken advantage of it," he added.

He also said the Rocks must have a sound defense to be able to stop the Hawk's numerous "offensive weapons."

Kickoff will be at 7:30 p.m.

Girls' volleyball gets fresh start at Bay High

BY DENA BISNETTE

With only one veteran player on the 1986 team, girls' volleyball is getting a fresh start as a competitive sport at Bay Senior High.

Coach Nick Seymour, now in his second year as volleyball coach, said he has been pleased and surprised by his young team.

"Considering that we're playing against much more experienced teams, it's remarkable how well we have done," Seymour said.

"Our talent level is much better than last year but our girls are young and inexperienced."

Bay High is presently 4-4 for the season with five games left before the district tournament on Oct. 27, 28 and 29.

Seymour said he sees a lot of growth in the program and a lot of potential.

"Our district is down to seven teams, mostly on the Coast, but the best high school volleyball in Mississippi is played down here," he explained.

The team includes juniors Kim Krankey, Sharmon Davis and Jessica Rahmberg; sophomores Therissa Gagnon, Laurel Rupp, Brooke Schultz and Joy Ladner; and freshmen Debbie Parrish, Teresa Roberson and Lisa Ladner.

"Since there are six on a volleyball team, we have an ideal number right now," the coach said.

Seymour actively recruits girls he feels will be good volleyball players and has had participation levels as high as 18 and as low as four in the year-round weight training program he uses to prepare the girls for the season.

"We went through a lot of girls to get these but it's still a battle to keep the program," he said.

"Pascagoula dropped theirs with three times as many girls as we have. These days you just have to recruit kids."

He explained that for many years, girls' volleyball was treated more like an intramural sport than a serious competitive sport. That trend is now changing, both at Bay High and at college level, where volleyball programs are being improved while other girls' sports like softball are being dropped.

"I have coached six different girls sports but volleyball is the one I definitely emphasize. I believe this is the sport of the future for girls who want college scholarships," Seymour said.

"I think colleges are placing more emphasis on volleyball partly because it is a fall sport. It has no competition from other women's sports and it has its own identity."

Improvements in Bay High's volleyball program since Seymour took over have included the weight program; home games, which were not played in the existing program; an upgraded schedule that includes 13 games and the district tournament; improved physical facilities including a refurbished locker room and office; new equipment; and new uniforms.

"We are also getting much more support from the public. When we played Our Lady Academy in our second game, we had a crowd of 200 people in here, and that's unheard of for high school volleyball," Seymour said.

"Our immediate goal is to turn this program into a good foundation we can build on four or five years from now. We got our first trophy last year and our goal for this year is to win the district," the coach said.

"We have been having some injury problems, but going into October we are starting to gain the valuable experience we need," Seymour added.

"I have looked at the first half of this season as a sort of practice schedule for these girls. The whole idea is to get these young kids experienced by the time the district rolls around."

Seymour said he recruits his players mostly on the basis of attitude.

"If you give me a girl with a heart, I can make her into an athlete," he said.

He found out which girls were serious about wanting to be volleyball players by having practice at 5:30 a.m. for two weeks.

"That's not easy and we lost a lot of girls that way," he commented.

Gagnon, who joined the team after Seymour spotted her in a physical education class one day, said the coach "works us hard but he's a great coach."

"He puts in a lot of time with us," she said.

Gagnon, who had never played competitive volleyball before, said she has found her favorite sport.

"From the first day at practice I just fell in love with it. What I like about it is that it takes both your mind and athletic ability, like being a quarterback in football. You have to think about what you have to do."

"We work about three or four days a week in the off-season, then we practice four days and have two game days."

Since volleyball is a game where players may rotate positions, the girls spend a lot of their time sharing what they have learned, Gagnon added.

"We rotate, and we have to play a little of everything," said Gagnon, who feels her best position is outside hitter.

"That's where volleyball is not like football. You have to know more than just one thing to do."

"It's a great challenge, something I like putting my time into, and I would love to be able to play in college."

Seymour feels Gagnon will probably be Bay High's first college volleyball player.

"I have never seen such potential, in all my 12 years of coaching, for a girl to become an outstanding volleyball player. She is an adequate hitter with excellent speed and agility and she has a heart of gold," the coach said.

He said Davis also shows great promise.

"She also never played before this year, but she's an excellent athlete who is going to be an outstanding outside hitter."

The team's only veteran, Kim Krankey, has done an excellent job of providing leadership for the newer players, he added.

He also named Debbie Parrish and Jessica Rahmberg, a Swedish exchange student, as players showing strong potential.

"Debbie has done a great job under the circumstances, and

Wildcats seek return to win column at Saturday homecoming

POPLARVILLE— Pearl River College lost the game against the Northwest Rangers here Saturday night but the contest was much closer than the 27-7 score.

After fighting to a 7-7 deadlock at halftime the now 5-0 Rangers scored 20 unanswered in the second half to take the win and more than likely the number one spot in at least one national poll.

PRC entered the contest ranked number two in the J. C. Gridwire, while the Rangers were number two in the NJCAA poll.

"Defensively we played well," said Mike Nelson, the Wildcats' head coach. "However, we broke down on offense."

The Wildcats allowed the potent Rangers only 113 yards rushing while the wishbone churned up 178 yards. The big difference was the turnovers and the poor passing of the Wildcats.

PRC fumbled the pigskin five times and lost four. The PRC quarterbacks passed 28 times, only completing six with two being intercepted.

The officiating did not go the Wildcats' way either. The films on Monday clearly showed that a Ranger receiver was out of bounds when he caught what led to a third period go ahead touchdown.

"We dominated them in the second quarter," Nelson said. "The punt at our 48 also really hurt. In fact, it was just a couple of plays which took us out of the game."

Nelson was very complimentary of the Rangers' defensive secondary. "They hit us hard and were very aggressive. It was tough on our receivers."

Northwest added another touchdown in the third quarter on a trick play. The play started with quarterback Leon Reed taking the ball and putting it on the ground behind his big center. All the backs and linemen then rolled to the left. Then all of a sudden right guard

Robert Beckett picked up the ball and rumbled in from 24 yards out. The play was different but it was legal.

The last Northwest score came after Scott Favre was intercepted by Bo Holloman who returned 80 yards to the PRC 10. Just one play later the Rangers had sealed the win.

PRC threatened on several occasions but could never push it in.

"We all want to play them again," Nelson said. "But to do that we'll have to make it to the playoffs and that means we have to beat East Central this weekend."

The game is very important in the South. The Cats and Co-Lin are tied for first now. It is also important because it's PRC's Homecoming.

FIRST PLACE TIE

And even though the Wildcats lost to the Northwest Rangers 27-7 this past week, they are still tied for first place in the tough South Division.

To stay on top in the South the Wildcats will have to rebound this week when they entertain the 1-4 East Central Warriors in the 'Cats homecoming tilt in the Dobie Holden Stadium.

PRC's overall record is now 4-1 and 2-0 in the South. Co-Lin has an identical 4-1 overall ledger with their only blemish also coming at the hands of the Rangers.

East Central is having another tough year. Last week Hinds won 19-7 handing the Warriors their third South loss of the year. At the present time East Central is bringing up the rear.

"We can't take this game lightly," PRC coach Mike Nelson said. "We have to get our heads on straight and get ready to play football."

Nelson said the Warriors are better than a 1-4 ballclub. "They have had some bad breaks this year," Nelson said. "They have been in every ballgame they have played."

The Warriors always give the Wildcats a run for their money. Last year the Wildcats won 9-7, the year before it was PRC winning 14-10 and in 1983 the two tied at 24.

There is another reason the game this week will probably be a barn-burner. East Central assistant and former PRC coach J.C. Arban will help get the Warriors ready for the homecoming tilt.

Arban coached the Wildcats from 1975 through the 1984 season. Nelson replaced Arban after the '84 season. Three points has been the deciding margin in several of the more recent games.

In 1982 the Wildcats won 10-7, in '81 East Central won 21-18 and then in '79 the Warriors took a 3-0 victory. Looking back even further shows that the Warriors again won by three in 1978 (16-13) with the Wildcats taking a 3-0 win in '76 and 27-23 decision in '77.

"Our players really hated to lose this past Saturday," Nelson said. "But they aren't going to hang their heads. They have a lot of character. We'll be back strong and ready this week."

PLAY-BY-PLAY

The Pearl River Wildcats suffered their first loss of the 1986 campaign Saturday night, losing to the second-ranked Northwest Rangers 27-7 at Dobie Holden Stadium.

The Rangers scored first following a 34-yard pass from quarterback

Leon Reed to receiver Craig Malone, which moved the ball to the PRJC 3-yard line. The five-play, 51-yard drive was capped on Robert Brown's 1-yard run up the middle. Kevin Bowlin added the extra point and gave the Rangers a 7-0 lead.

PRJC's Larry Copeland recovered a Ranger fumble later in the first quarter at the Northwest 16-yard line. Quarterback Gerald Tillman then capped the short drive with a one-yard run, and Joey Tatum's PAT tied the score at 7-all.

The Wildcat defense then held the Rangers in check after the kickoff, forcing a punt. The ball was fumbled on the reception, and Northwest recovered at the Pearl River 40-yard line.

The defense held once again, forcing a Bowlin 35-yd. field goal. The kick fell short, and the Wildcats then marched back to the Northwest 18.

On fourth down Tatum was called in to try a 35 yd. field goal. The Wildcats then faked the kick, but failed to capture the first down. The score remained 7-all at the half.

In the third quarter, Pearl River's Thurmon Geathers fumbled the ball at the Wildcats' 32, giving the Rangers another field goal try from 32-yards out. Again Bowlin's kick fell short.

Reed then hit Brown on a long bomb of 65 yards for another score. The kick was good, but a controversy of whether Brown had stepped out of Bounds on the reception remained.

On the ensuing kickoff the reception was fumbled. On third down from the PRJC 24 offensive guard Robert Beckett ran the ball in on a trick play. The kick was then blocked by Picayune's Stanford Lewis, but the Rangers still led 20-7.

In the fourth quarter the Wildcats put up two drives to try and get back in the Contest. The first drive reached the Northwest six-yard line, but a fourth-down pass fell incomplete in the end zone.

The second drive of quarter was stopped at Northwest 10. Cornerback Boyd Holloman then intercepted quarterback Scott Favre and returned the ball 80 yards to the PRJC 10. The Rangers scored again to set the final score at 27-7.

Overall the Wildcats gained 254 yard total offense to the Rangers' 207, and 13 first downs to the Rangers' eight. The big difference, however, was two interceptions and four fumbles given up by the Wildcats compared to two by the Rangers.

Running back Darryl Thompson led the Wildcats in rushing with 50 yards on four carries, followed by Terry Broughton with 30 yards on five carries, and Tillman with 19 yards on eight carries.

Defensively, Roy Wayne Jones of Covington, La., registered four tackles and five assists, while Greg Amacker of Poplarville scored two tackles and two assists.

The Wildcats, 4-1 overall, face East Central next Saturday night for homecoming at Dobie Holden Stadium. The game starts at 8 p.m.

Eagles face fourth road game

HATTIESBURG— For the first time in five games, the USM Golden Eagles do not face a nationally ranked opponent. This week, USM does play its fourth consecutive road game as head coach Jim Carmody's club invades Lexington, Ky., to play the Wildcats of the University of Kentucky.

The record books show just one other meeting between the two institutions. That one took place in 1949, when the Wildcats defeated the Southerners 71-3.

The SEC club is 1-0-1 in the first two encounters. Offensively head coach Jerry Claiborne's club is led by quarterback Bill Ransell, who passed for 1,744 yards last season. Running back Mark Logan rushed for 715 yards and paced the team with 32 receptions a year ago.

The Golden Eagles also have an explosive club. Tailback Vincent Alexander has rushed for 345 yards in the first three games, while second team tailback Shelton Gandy has scored five rushing touchdowns in the young season.

Jessica is an exceptional athlete who is learning very quickly and just needs time to develop," Seymour said.

"What I look for is a girl who really has her heart in playing volleyball, someone with commitment and dedication. Physical ability is important but without dedication a girl can't stay on the team."

"I believe in building a quick, aggressive team starting from the back line and having speed and agility. That will overcome an opposing team's height in many instances," he added.

The girls get to try out that aggressiveness, speed and agility again tonight when they play at Our Lady of Victories at 6 p.m.

The October schedule also includes:

—Oct. 7, Mercy Cross, away
—Oct. 14, St. Martin, away
—Oct. 15, Our Lady Academy, home

—Oct. 21, Biloxi, home
—Oct. 23, Long Beach, home
All games begin at 6 p.m.

The location of the district tournament Oct. 27-29 has not yet been announced.

Sponsors name seven 'Players of The Week'

Split end Vince Cuevas of the Hancock North Central Hawks scored on a 35-yard touchdown pass play to capture offensive honors in the Lolacano Health Club—Trophies by Rick Geoffrey 'Player of The Week' program for high school football stars.

Hawk defensive honors went to Darrell Booker and Dwyane Acker. Booker, an inside linebacker, is credited with five tackles, six assists and causing one fumble.

Acker effected five tackles, two assists and two special team tackles in the Hawk win over Pass Christian.

In the Bay High victory over Vancleave, Aaron Whavers carried for 141 yards and scored two touchdowns on runs of 60 and nine yards, respectively to win offensive 'Player of The Week' title.

Tiger defensive honors go to Wayne Karl who is credited with four tackles and seven assists.

At St. Stanislaus, Ya-sin Shabazz picked up 59 yards in ten carries, including a 23-yard run to gain offensive Player of The Week honors at that institution.

Gino Ascani dumped six Long Beach ball carriers on his own and assisted in 10 other tackles to take the SSC defensive trophy.

Alumni group offers bus trip to Oct. 4 Ole Miss-Georgia

The University of Mississippi Alumni Association is offering a bus trip to University alumni and Rebel sports fans who wish to attend the Ole Miss vs. Georgia football game in Athens on Saturday, Oct. 4.

The bus will leave Oxford at 8 a.m. Friday, Oct. 3, and arrive at the Atlanta Marriott mid-afternoon. A pregame reception for bus passengers and Ole Miss alumni in the Atlanta area is set for 5:30 p.m. at the Ole Miss suite at the Marriott. The bus will transport passengers to and from Athens for the game Saturday, Oct. 4, and will return to Oxford at 4:30 p.m. Sunday.

Any Rebel fan wishing to reserve a seat on the bus should do so by contacting the Alumni Affairs Office at (601) 232-7375.

The cost of the bus trip is $180 per person and includes transportation, a double room at the Atlanta Marriott and snacks and beverages on the bus and at the pregame reception.

USM plans variety of homecoming events

HATTIESBURG—The University of Southern Mississippi Homecoming Weekend Oct. 17-18 will feature a variety of activities bannered under a 75th anniversary theme, "USM and Diamonds are Forever."

Student decorations featuring the "diamonds" theme, an oldtimes baseball game, luncheons and dinners, a run/walk event, class reunions, theatre production, midnight pep rally and a climatic football clash between USM's Golden Eagles and Memphis State will highlight the weekend schedule.

USM Alumni Association President Carolyn G. Smith of Quitman and Alumni Director Powell G. Ogletree are finalizing plans for the big weekend.

Student decorations will focus on the student-selected 75th Anniversary theme of "USM and Diamonds are Forever." The Alumni Association will award an overall trophy plus first-place trophies for theme, beauty and originality.

Student organizations will compete in one of four divisions, with each division receiving a first-place trophy in the three areas. Divisions include fraternities, sororities, residence halls and other groups.

Friday festivities will include an annual alumni golf tournament, an oldtimes baseball game, the USM Foundation's annual homecoming dinner and business meeting, a Department of Theater and Dance production of "Ladies of the Alamo" and an annual midnight pep rally in the central campus area.

The third annual Homecoming Run/Walk will kick off Saturday's events with the starting gun at 8:30 a.m. Past presidents of the USM Alumni Association will join current members of the association's executive committee for a brunch.

USM Alumni Golf slated

HATTIESBURG—Early registration is advised for the annual Alumni Golf Tournament at the University of Southern Mississippi Friday, Oct. 17.

The tournament kicks off official activities for USM's Homecoming Weekend Oct. 17-18. The event has become so popular in recent years that early registration is advised in order to be sure of making the cut.

Registration is $25 and includes a golf cart. The tournament will take place on USM's B.O. Van Hook Golf Course.

Send registration fee, full name, address, and handicap to Ron Phillips, USM Alumni Office, Southern Station Box 5013, Hattiesburg, Miss., 39406-5013.

After the Texas A & M game, the Golden Eagles have a record of 48-15-2 against teams from the state of Texas.

Homecoming parade to roll in Poplarville

POPLARVILLE— Pearl River College's annual homecoming parade through Poplarville is set for Saturday.

The parade will begin assembling at the Dobie Holden Stadium home parking lot at 2 p.m. with the parade

FOOTBALL MAID— Amy Magee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Magee of Bay St. Louis, was elected Freshman Football Maid for the 1986 PRC Homecoming Court. Magee, a 1986 graduate of Bay Senior High, is a cheerleader for the PRC Wildcats this year. While in high school she was a member of the Student Council and the National Honor Society; was elected to the Bay High Homecoming Court as a senior; was a cheerleader; and was selected to Who's Who Among American High School Students. PRC Homecoming festivities will begin at 7:30 a.m. Saturday before the PRC Wildcats take on the East Central Warriors.

50TH REUNION

The Pearl River College graduating class of 1936 will have their "Big 50" class reunion at noon Oct. 4 in the Pearl River College cafeteria. The reunion will be a highlight in the PRC homecoming festivities planned for that day.

Members of the 1934 and 1935 classes are invited.

The day's activities will begin at noon with a luncheon buffet and a time of sharing and tall tales. The Annual PRC Homecoming begins at 3 p.m. down the streets of Poplarville. Then at 4:30 p.m. there will be a business meeting in the PRC Library.

At 6 p.m. there will be a banquet with reserved seats. Then the crowning of the homecoming queen will take place at 7:30 p.m. just moments before the PRC Wildcats take on the East Central Warriors.

Homecoming queen to be crowned Saturday

POPLARVILLE— Michelle McCalla of Leakesville will be crowned queen of Pearl River College's 77th Homecoming Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the Dobie Holden Stadium.

Leta Aultman of Sumrall, Lisa Kindja of Poplarville and Deana Davis of Poycune will serve as sophomore maids. Freshman maids include Stephanie McGowen of Columbia, Jill Smith of Poycune and Kim Edmon of Sumrall.

Freshman Amy Magee of Bay St. Louis and Sophomore Starlett Poole of Poplarville are 1986 Wildcat football maids.

Miss McCalla, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jimmy McCalla of Leakesville, is a 1984 graduate of Richton High School. While in high school she was voted Most Beautiful, senior maid, was a cheerleader, and was chosen Salutatorian of her senior class.

At Pearl River, Miss McCalla is a member of the PRC String of Pearls, a precision dance team. She was elected to the homecoming court last year as a freshman maid.

Talladega expecting 400 for point races

TALLADEGA, Ala.— More than 400 entries in 17 classes will be at the world's fastest speedway this weekend, Sept. 26-28, for the World Karting Association's Enduro Point Races presented by Burris Manufacturing.

Alabama International Motor Speedway annually hosts WKA's fall enduro, and it is always highly competitive racing as the season point championships draw to a conclusion.

This year is no exception, as the point championship in all 17 events is still up for grabs.

Registration, inspection and open practice will be held on Friday, the 26th, with the first race slated for 11:45 a.m. on Saturday, the 27th. The Super Karts, perhaps the most popular class with spectators, will also run on Saturday.

Junior high Tigers add fourth victory

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Bay St. Louis Junior High School Tigers remain undefeated, boosting their season record to 4-0 with an 18-0 victory over St. John Junior High in Gulfport.

On their first possession, the Tigers scored on a 12-yard run by Ronald Goodman.

A try for a two-point conversion was unsuccessful and the Tigers led 6-0.

The Tigers scored their second touchdown on a three-yard run by Emmanuel Antoine with about one minute left in first half.

Head Coach Gary Blaize said Antoine was playing his first game at fullback after being moved from guard to replace an injured player.

Another conversion attempt was unsuccessful, giving the Tigers a 12-point lead going into the second half.

Bay scored again in the third quarter on a 60-yard pass interception return by Goodman.

A third conversion attempt failed and the final score stood at 18-0.

Blaize said outstanding players for the game included Goodman at linebacker and Billy Cuevas at defensive tackle.

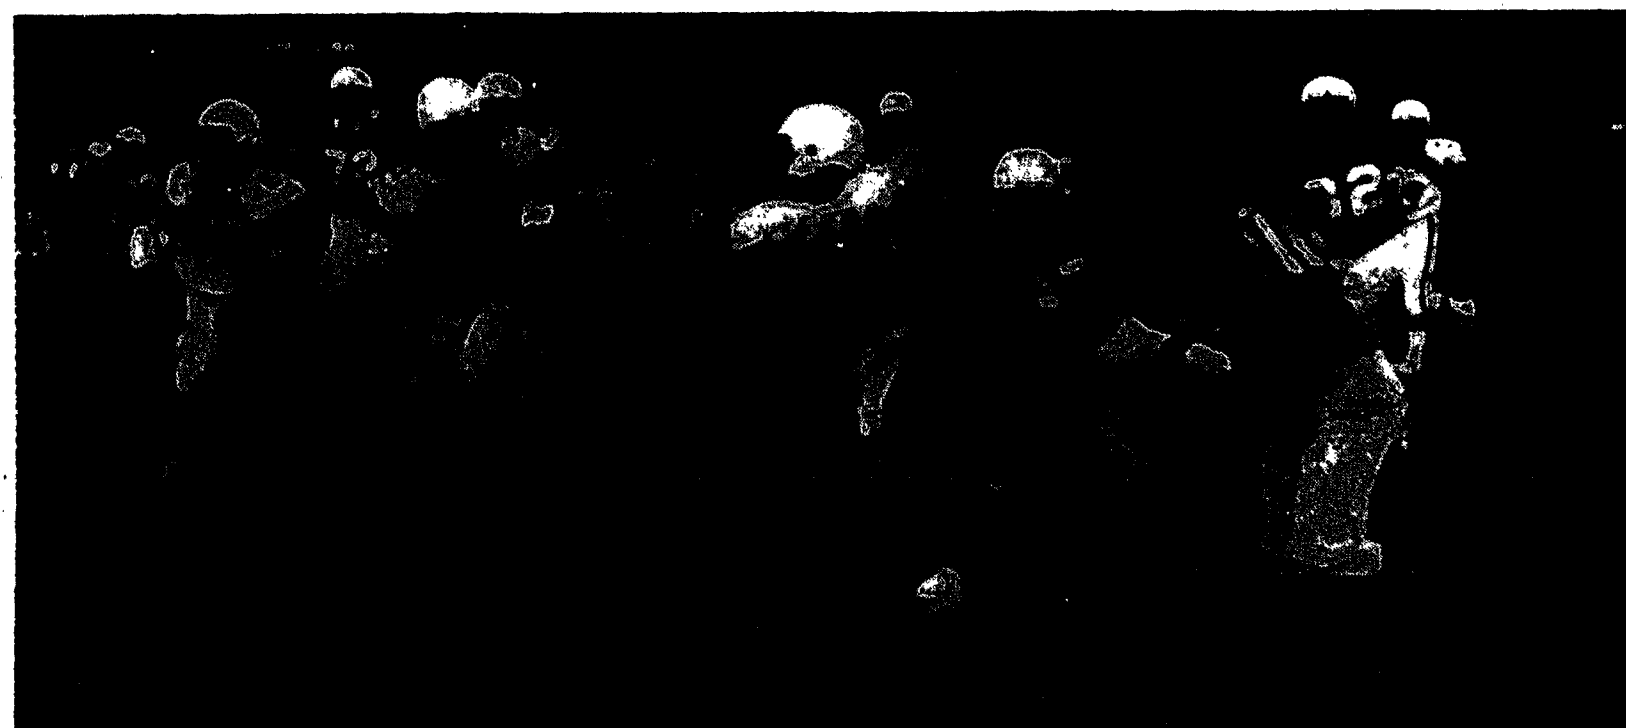

David Weems was credited with one interception and an overall good defensive game.

"Offensively, the team as a unit played real well and moved ball well," the coach added.

The Tigers will try for a fifth victory when they host the Pass Christian Junior High Pirates at 6:30 p.m. Oct. 9.

"We just defeated Pass Christian 20-18 last week so we're expecting it to be a tough game," Blaize said.

UNDEFEATED JUNIORS—Troy Lowe, 28, Bay Junior High running back, eludes a Pearl River Central tackler to pick up interference from Tiger fullback Andy Fouche, 36, and guard Jay Kelly, 61. Lowe scored twice in the recent 14-0 BJHS victory over the Blue Devils. The 4-0 Tigers this week defeated St. John's Eagles 18-0 and will host the Pass Christian Pirates Thursday, Oct. 9 at 6:30 p.m. (Photo by Velma Ingram)

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
PROJECT NO. RS-HC-77
Sealed bids will be received by the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, until 10:00 A.M. October 14, 1986, and shortly thereafter publicly opened for:

Base preparation and hot bituminous plant mix surface of approximately 1,300 feet of Hancock Medical Center entrance Road, parallel to Drinkwater Road, in Hancock County, Mississippi.

Payment for the work may be made from Hospital Contingency Funds or Revenue Sharing Funds; therefore, all conditions in the proposal and all of those applicable to the expenditure of revenue sharing funds shall be complied with.

The award, if made, will be made to the lowest qualified bidder on the basis of the published quantities.

Plans and Specifications are on file in the offices of the Hancock County Chancery Clerk and Lawrence L. Seal, County Engineer, 113 Tally Road, Piquette, Mississippi. Plans and Proposals may be secured upon payment of $25.00, which is not refundable.

Certified check of bid bond for five percent (5%) of total bid payable to Hancock County must accompany each proposal.

The Board reserves the right to reject or all bids. Certified check or bid bond will be returned immediately to unsuccessful bidders. Bidders are hereby notified that any proposal accompanied by letters qualifying in any manner the condition under which the proposal is tendered will be considered an irregular bid and such proposals will not be considered in making the award.

A performance bond, or equal, in the full amount of the contract will be required of the successful bidder. In lieu of a performance bond the successful bidder may post with the Board of Supervisors, the full amount of the bid, in cash or its equivalent, conditioned for the prompt, proper and efficient performance of the contract; said cash or its equivalent to be held until the successful completion of the project.

The contractors will be required to pay wages in accordance with and meet other conditions of the Davis-Bacon Act, and to meet conditions of employment under applicable laws.

Attention is called to the fact that contracts exceeding $50,000 require contractors to be licensed under applicable laws of the State of Mississippi and have a certificate of responsibility.

Published by order of the Board of Supervisors dated this 23rd day of September, 1986.

4-H offers friendship opportunities

As school begins, boys and girls begin their search for friends and their place in a group. Their satisfaction with school, and sometimes even their success this year, will depend on who becomes a friend and which group they become a part of.

You've often read and heard, "You have to be a friend to have one." That's as true today as when it was first said. A translation of an even older bit of advice says, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." They're both true and they both work—when practiced.

To be a friend you include others in your life. You listen and show you're interested, concerned and paying attention to what he or she is saying. You also let them know you won't discuss with someone else what they've asked you to keep in confidence.

A friend shares ideas, feelings and concerns. A friend shares information that would be helpful to the other person.

Being a friend means accepting another with his or her right to ideas and ways of doing things even if they seem different. It means walking and talking with a person and inviting them to be a part of your plans.

Another way to win friends is to approve of them. Let them know you like things about them or like what they're doing. Look for ways to sincerely praise the other person. For example, "I like the way you handled that situation," or "I like the way you dance."

You can also get to know people better by identifying with them—finding things you have in common. You ask questions and give information. You may learn you're both from a small town, like the same recording or television stars or even have common problems. You emphasize the things you have in common and not your differences.

Becoming involved in clubs and school organizations will put you in touch with people who have interests like yours. 4-H is a club which offers unlimited opportunities to meet new people, learn new skills and to travel across the state and nation. It also puts you in touch with adult leaders who care about you.

If you'd like more information about the 4-H program call the Hancock County Extension 4-H youth agent at 467-5456.

YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

—Have a positive attitude toward yourself and your ability to learn and make friends.

—Have a positive attitude toward school, learning, teachers and administrators.

—Set short- and long-term goals and work toward them every day. Revise them as needed.

—Be friendly and considerate of others.

—Make a study schedule and follow it daily.

—Eat breakfast every morning.

—Eat a balanced meal at noon and night and junk food only on rare occasions.

Exercise at least 20 minutes each day - brisk walking, swimming, jogging, skating, aerobics and bicycling are good examples.

—Get at least eight hours of sleep per night.

—Have a quiet, well-lighted place for study and use it daily.

—Work on a positive relationship with parents.

—Give every activity you choose to be involved in your best effort.

—Be interested in other people.

—Say "NO" to anything or anybody that would cause you to compromise your goals or values.

—Be an encourager to others.

—Have and practice a religious faith.

—Join at least one club or organization that provides fun and learning experiences in an area of interest.

OUR LADY'S LADIES

Seventh graders at Our Lady Academy conducted a special prayer service on Wednesday, Sept. 24, in celebration of the feast of Our Lady of Mercy.

The service included prayer and music and was written by Sister Mary Elisa Bauman, RSM and to commemorate the founding of the order of the Sisters of Mercy.

The order, active in the Gulf Coast area since 1875, was founded in Dublin, Ireland by Catherine McAuley. Sister Catherine was from a wealthy family yet determined to spend her life ministering to the poor, miserable and ignorant. The year was 1831 and she was joined by seven other dedicated women.

The service stressed "a need for women to radiate Christian love lest they become hardened, frozen, insensitive, stiff and hollow."

"If our world seems bankrupt today, it is because we have not offered the needed capital—the gift of self," wrote Sister Elisa.

The service was concluded by gifts of candy from Mrs. J.J. Howard, the mother of Sister Jacqueline Howard, principal of OLA.

Teacher shortage in the offing

By Darvis Gallaher
Corinth Public Schools

(The following article resulted from a grant from the Mississippi Committee for the Humanities to the Mississippi Press Association. The opinions expressed are those of the author and not of either organization.)

Where will the qualified teachers come from for students five years from now?

Ten years ago about 15 percent of the nation's college-bound high school seniors planned to enter the teaching profession. Today, less than five percent say that they intend to major in education.

Dick Molpus, the Secretary of State of Mississippi, reported that 3,700 college graduates in Mississippi were issued teaching certificates in 1975. Nine years later only 2,000 teaching certificates were issued.

With statewide kindergarten scheduled to begin in the fall of 1986, the shortage of qualified educators in Mississippi will undoubtedly reach the critical point very quickly.

Low pay accompanied by new demands for accountability and excellence appear to be taking their toll on the number of young people willing to enter the profession.

"The paperwork has become a real burden," an experienced teacher complained.

"There're so many federal guidelines to meet, local policies to enforce and specific rules that it's just not worth it."

Another teacher said, "It's ironic that we nurture the development of the engineer, the doctor, and the lawyer but we seem to be valued much less by society."

One Gallup survey showed that only doctors were viewed to be in a more demanding profession than teachers. However, physicians, members of the clergy, college professors, lawyers and business executives were perceived to hold more prestigious positions than public school teachers.

As the teacher shortages increase, Mary Futrell, President of the National Education Association, warns the public not to allow state legislators to make a mockery of educational reform by lowering certification requirements in order to fill vacancies.

A National Education Association Gallup Poll showed that 92 percent of those surveyed in districts that have difficulty finding teachers were against lowering teacher certification standards to make it easier to find teachers.

For any state to attract industry and grow economically it must accept the responsibility of educating its citizenry. Educating citizens requires the skills of properly educated educators.

ETV Brief

DROPOUT PROBLEM

A special edition of "Access" will deal with Mississippi's school dropout problem at 1:30 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 5, on Mississippi ETV. Host Jack Schweitzer will talk with education experts from the state about the problem and its consequences and possible solutions.

They will discuss the G.E.D. certificate program and also the adult literacy programs in Mississippi.

"Access" will follow a special program, "Project Second Chance: Dropouts in America," which will be broadcast on ETV at 12:30 p.m., Oct. 5.

Youth activities at State Fair listed

A variety of youth activities will highlight this year's Mississippi State Fair which opened Wednesday and runs through Sunday, Oct. 12 at the state fairgrounds complex in Jackson.

"Mississippi's youth will be demonstrating their skills in numerous ways from livestock competition to rodeoing to talent," said Agriculture Commissioner Jim Buck Ross, chairman of the State Fair Commission, and sponsor of the fair.

"Each year the youth activities are a very special part of the fair. Not only are they fun for the youngsters but they're also educational," said Billy Orr, fairgrounds manager and executive director of the fair commission.

"The Mississippi State Fair is once again pleased to be hosting a wide range of activities for youth. These outstanding youngsters always make us proud of them," said Tommy Strickland, livestock manager and assistant director of the fair commission.

First off is the FFA Livestock Judging Contest at 9 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 4 in the Junior Judging Arena, followed by high school cheerleader competition at 10 a.m. on the east lawn of the coliseum.

The Mississippi Lamb Sweetheart Contest is scheduled for 1 p.m. in the Trade Mart. Also scheduled is the Junior Steer Show at 6 p.m. in the Junior Judging Arena.

Activities Sunday, Oct. 5 include the Junior Sheep Lead Class at 1 p.m. in the Junior Judging Arena. Following the Sheep Lead Class will be the Junior Market Lamb Show. The Mississippi State Fair Drill and Dance Team will compete at 1 p.m. on the east lawn of the coliseum. On Monday, Oct. 6, the youth activities continue with a Junior Beef Breeding Show at 8:30 a.m. in the Judging Arena.

At 3 p.m., the Junior Market Hog Show will be held in the Swine Arena.

No youth activities are scheduled on Tuesday, Oct. 7. The activities continue Wednesday, Oct. 8 with junior high cheerleader competition at 1 p.m. on the east lawn of the coliseum.

Thursday, Oct. 9 at 1 p.m. is the deadline for arrival of junior and senior dairy cattle.

More youth activities slated Friday, Oct. 10. A 4-H Dairy Sweetheart Contest is scheduled at 10:30 a.m. in the meeting room of the Trade Mart. At 7:30 p.m. the first performance of the Mississippi High School Rodeo takes place in the Multi-Purpose Building.

Saturday, Oct. 11 is the final day of youth activities. The Junior Dairy Cattle Show is set for 9 a.m. in the Junior Judging Arena.

The Mississippi State Fair Talent Contest featuring young entertainers up to age 18 will be in the Mississippi State Fair/Budweiser Pavilion at 1 p.m.

A second performance of the Mississippi High School Rodeo at 7:30 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose Building concludes youth activities.

Assistant teacher program results in higher scores for grades 1-3

The Mississippi Department of Education released data today on the annual evaluation of the assistant teacher program for grades 1 through 3 which indicated that the program is having great success in helping to improve student achievement in the State of Mississippi.

The report indicated that students who finished the third grade in the 1985-86 school year scored 22 percentile points higher in mathematics, 19 percentile points higher in language arts and 10 percentile points higher in reading than did the third grade class of 1984-85 which had no opportunity to benefit from the teacher assistant program which was instituted as one of the major reforms of the Education Reform Act of 1982.

A sample of third grade students was tested using the Stanford National Achievement Test and based on the results, the typical student in the third grade was found to be achieving at the 51st percentile in reading, the 57th percentile in mathematics, and the 60th percentile in language arts.

If students were performing at the average for students in the nation, their national percentile score would be the 50th percentile.

Dr. Herbert Handley of Mississippi State University who conducted the evaluation stated that the results indicated that the teacher assistant program is a success, especially as it relates to the achievement of students.

Dr. Richard A. Boyd, state superintendent of education, noted that Mississippi should be proud of the fact that the poorest state in the nation with the highest levels of poverty among children was able to score above the national norm in the three essential areas of reading, math, and language arts.

"These results are a tribute to the fine work of the classroom teachers who are making the Education Reform Act work every day in the classroom," Boyd stated.

Mississippi writers funded

With volumes of fiction and nonfiction already published, two more books in the anthology "Mississippi Writers: Reflections of Childhood and Youth" have been funded by the Phil B. Hardin Foundation of Meridian.

The foundation has made an outright grant of $15,000 and a challenge grant of $15,000 to the University of Mississippi's Center for the Study of Southern Culture to edit a third volume of poetry and a fourth volume of drama in the series. The anthology is published by University Press of Mississippi.

The $15,000 challenge portion of the $30,000 grant will be matched by funds from other sources to publish the remaining volumes, said Dr. Bill Ferris, director of the Center for the Study of Southern Culture.

Series Editor Dorothy Abbott said the poetry volume will be wide-ranging. "Our contributing writers will encompass everything from the traditional sonnet to the rhythms and phrasings of the blues," she said. "We will include poems centered squarely in Mississippi's present, as well as surrealistic expression."

Many of the contributors will be well known, such as Margaret Walker, Al Young, Sterling Plump, James Whitehead, James Seay, Ellen Gilchrist, Jerry Ward, Beaumont Newhall and Ethridge Knight.

Others are more renowned for their prose, such as Eudora Welty, William Faulkner, Richard Wright and Tennessee Williams. There will also be a sampling of poets whose work has never been anthologized.

Does your pet know your name and address?

Steven Davis, HSUS NEWS

You can teach your child your name and address or tuck a note with the information into his or her pocket.

but your pet can't tell a police officer your address or pull out an ID card.

The only place your pet can carry the information that will get it safely home is around its neck.

A collar with your name and address and an up-to-date license from your local animal control department can help get your pet home safely.

Safeguard your pet with a collar, tag and license.
